Dear Sirs,

Re: (1) Commodity Purchase Agreement dated on or around the date of this letter with ACP SHARIAH FINANCING GP LIMITED acting as general partner for ACP SHARIAH FINANCING FUND L.P. (the "ACP CPA");

(2) the Murabaha Agreement dated on or around this date between ACP SHARIAH FINANCING GP LIMITED acting as general partner for ACP SHARIAH FINANCING FUND L.P. and Klaim Receivable Purchase SPV 4 Limited (the "MMA")

Unless the context does not so permit, the capitalised terms in this fee letter ("Fee Letter") have the same meanings as defined in the ACP CPA.

We are pleased to confirm that, with effect from the date hereof, we will apply the following fees:

1. An upfront fee ("Upfront Fee") of USD 150 (one hundred and fifty United States dollars) shall be paid by the Purchaser to the Seller on or before signing the CPA and the Seller shall invoice the Purchaser for such amount accordingly, the Purchaser hereby agreeing to pay such invoice in full as soon as practicable. For the avoidance of doubt, no Sale Transaction shall be entered into unless and until the Upfront Fee has been paid in full.

2. Thereafter, immediately after the conclusion of each Sale Transaction, the Seller will charge the Purchaser a fee ("Commodity Administration Fee") of USD 7.5 (seven and a half United States dollars) per one million United States dollars (USD 1,000,000) units, calculated on the Purchase Price on a pro-rata basis. Where the currency of the relevant Sale Transaction is other than USD then fees shall be calculated using the then current exchange rate of the relevant currency into USD.

For the avoidance of doubt, the minimum Commodity Administration Fee payable for any one Sale Transaction will be set as one hundred and fifty United States Dollars (USD 150).

In respect of the Commodity Administration Fee, we shall invoice you in USD immediately after each Sale Transaction is concluded, and you agree to pay to us the full invoice amount within ten (10) days of receipt of the relevant invoice. You hereby further agree that all invoiced amounts in respect of both the Upfront Fee and the Commodity Administration Fee will be paid in full without set-off or counterclaim or other restrictions and free and clear of and without any deductions or withholding for or on account of any taxes or any charges or otherwise unless you are required to make such a payment subject to the deduction or withholding of tax, in which case the sum payable by you in respect of which such mandatory deduction or withholding has been made shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of such deduction or withholding, we receive and retain (free from any liability in respect of any such deduction or withholding) a net sum equal to the original invoiced amount.

Should you fail to pay us the full invoice amount within the stipulated period, without deduction or withholding as aforesaid, we hereby reserve all of our rights under the Agreement, including the right to suspend or otherwise hold in abeyance our commodity administration services (including in respect of Sale Transactions), unless and until any such unpaid amount has been settled in full to our complete satisfaction. Equally if you are unable to pay us the full invoice amount during that 10-day period we will send a copy of each invoice to Amwal Capital Partners (of Unit 1901, Index Tower, DIFC, Dubai, UAE) for their attention and we shall expect payment from them in accordance with the terms of this Fee Letter

This Fee Letter may be executed in counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be original, but all the counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Please sign and return a copy of this Fee Letter to acknowledge your acceptance of the above.

This Fee Letter is governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law. A person who is not a party to this Fee Letter has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Fee Letter.

Yours faithfully

DD&Co Limited
