(c) Conditions to Effectiveness. This Agreement shall become effective at such time as each of the conditions precedent set forth on Exhibit B to this Agreement has been satisfied to the satisfaction of the Buyer.

(d) Conditions Precedent to Each Purchase. In respect of any Proposed Receivable purchased or purported to have been purchased (in each case, either in whole or in part and including by way of reinvesting Collections as contemplated herein) by the Buyer, the Seller relating to that Proposed Receivable shall procure that each of the following have been satisfied (except to the extent waived (in its absolute discretion) by the Buyer):

(xi) the Weighted Average Life of the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of Eligible Receivables does not exceed 70 days, and/or the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of Extended Age Receivables does not exceed 5% of the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of all Eligible Receivables.

(e) Purchase Price. The purchase price for each Purchased Receivable purchased on any Purchase Date shall equal to the Adjusted Net Invoice Amount of such Purchased Receivable (such amount herein referred to as the "Purchase Price"). The Buyer shall pay the Purchase Price to the Sellers' Account on the applicable Purchase Date, which may be satisfied by the Buyer directing the Seller to reinvest amounts on deposit in the Collection Account in accordance with Section 5(e) (Transfers from the Custody Account to the Collection Account).

(f) True Sale; Limited Recourse. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each purchase of the Purchased Receivables is made with limited recourse to any Seller and no Seller shall have liability to the Buyer for the failure of any Account Debtor to pay any Purchased Receivable when it is due and payable under the terms applicable thereto solely as a result of an Insolvency Event having occurred in respect of that Account Debtor. The parties hereto have structured each transaction contemplated by this Agreement as an absolute and irrevocable sale, and the Buyer and each Seller agree to treat each such transaction as a "true sale" for all purposes under Applicable Law and accounting principles, including, without limitation, in their respective books, records, computer files, tax returns (federal, state and local), regulatory and governmental filings (and shall reflect such sale in their respective financial statements). (g) Each Seller agrees that Buyer may use its name to the extent necessary to effectively exercise all or any of such rights and remedies under this Agreement and any applicable insurance protection; that it will furnish any assistance which may be reasonably required when exercising such rights and remedies on the understanding that Seller will not be required to incur any costs, fees or expenses arising in connection with any proceedings which Buyer or its interested underwriters may take in such Seller's name or in their own name in the exercise of such rights and remedies. Buyer and its interested underwriters are fully authorized to pursue whatever recovery actions deemed appropriate against any transit carriers, third parties or other bailees as appropriate in each case. In connection therewith, each Seller agrees to use all reasonable means to recover the full amount of any losses suffered in connection with lost or damaged goods underlying Purchased Receivables relating to such Seller from any third parties (including importers and exporters) to the extent of such Seller's contractual rights to recover from such third parties any losses. Each Seller further agrees that the Buyer shall be subrogated to the Seller, and the Buyer, or an agent appointed by the Buyer, shall be entitled to exercise all rights of recovery from, and actions that may be taken against, any third party in respect of a Purchased Receivable.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, all obligations of the Sellers, the Servicer, the Sub-Servicers under this Agreement, including all covenants, representations, warranties, repurchase obligations, and indemnities made herein shall continue in full force and effect until the day that is six (6) months following the Final Collection Date. Notwithstanding termination of this Agreement, the rights and obligations of the parties in relation to any Purchased Receivable that has been purchased by the Buyer, prior to such termination would continue to bind the Parties to the extent and for so far and so long as may be necessary to give effect to such rights and obligations.

(i) Retained Amount. To the extent received into the Custody Account in respect of the Purchased Receivable, the excess of the Net Invoice Amount over the Adjusted Net Invoice Amount shall be transferred to the Collection Account in accordance with Section 5(c) (Transfers from the Custody Account to the Collection Account) and held on trust by the Buyer and may be applied by Buyer in respect of the Sellers' and the Sub-Servicers' obligations to the Buyer under this Agreement (the "Retained Amount"), including the obligations of the Sellers' to pay any amounts under Section 6 hereof to the Buyer (all such obligations applied with respect to such Purchased Receivable, the "Applicable Deductions"), and the difference between the Retained Amount minus all Applicable Deductions, if any, shall be payable by the Buyer to the Seller's Account upon the termination of this Agreement and the payment in full to Buyer of all Purchased Receivables and all obligations to Buyer under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each Seller hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Buyer shall not be in any way responsible for the performance of any Contract and the Buyer shall not have any obligation to intervene in any Dispute arising out of the performance of any Contract giving rise to any Purchased Receivable. All obligations of a Customer as a seller of the goods and provider of any related services, including, without limitation, all obligations of such Customer as seller under any Contract, all representations and warranty obligations, all servicing obligations, all maintenance obligations, and all delivery, transport and insurance obligations, shall be retained by such Customer and Buyer shall have no liability whatsoever.

Each Seller further represents and warrants that, to its knowledge or as acquired from the Customer, each representation and warranty made by the Customer in the Aggregator Receivables Purchase Agreement relating to the origination, validity, and characteristics of any Proposed Receivable or Purchased Receivable was true and correct as of the date such Receivable was acquired by the Seller from such Customer.

Each Seller represents and warrants to the Buyer on each Purchase Date that each Proposed Receivable included in the applicable Purchase Request is an Eligible Receivable as of such Purchase Date.

Covenants.

(a) Each Seller and each Sub-Servicer agrees to perform each of the covenants set forth on Exhibit D hereto applicable to it.

5. Servicing and Sub-Activities; Collection and Administration of the Custody Account, Disbursement Account (USD) and the Collection Account.

(a) Appointment of Sub-Servicer. The Servicer shall be entitled to service the Purchased Receivables directly or through one or more sub-servicers. The Servicer hereby appoints each Seller as its sub-servicer and agent (each, in such capacity, a "Sub-Servicer") for the administration and servicing of its Purchased Receivables sold by such Person to the Buyer hereunder, and each Seller hereby accepts such appointment and agrees to assume the duties and the administration and servicing obligations as a Sub-Servicer, and perform all necessary and appropriate commercial servicing and collection activities in arranging the prompt payment of amounts due and owing by any Account Debtor by the earliest payment date possible (including the identification of the proceeds of the Purchased Receivables and related recordkeeping which shall be made available to the Buyer upon its reasonable request) all in accordance with Applicable Laws, with reasonable care and diligence, including, without limitation, diligently and faithfully performing all servicing actions, maximizing the prompt collections related thereto (including, if necessary, acting as party of record in foreign jurisdictions); provided, however, that such appointment as Sub-Servicer shall not release a Seller from any of its duties, responsibilities, liabilities and obligations resulting from or arising hereunder. The Sub-Servicer shall also procure the co-operation of the relevant Customer in all servicing and collection efforts. In connection with its servicing obligations, each Sub-Servicer will perform its duties under the Contract related to the Purchased Receivables in a commercially reasonable manner, including timely performance of any obligation(s) to provide services or ensure delivery of the goods underlying such Purchased Receivable to its destination in good order and condition (or, in the case of a Purchased Receivable, ensure the Customer has performed such obligations). Should any goods underlying a Purchased Receivable be arrested, attached, detained, restrained, seized, or otherwise prevented from being timely delivered, then Seller and Sub-Servicer shall be responsible for posting such security and/or bail as is necessary to ensure prompt release (and shall procure the Customer's assistance in doing so).

(b) Payments to Collection Account. Each Seller and Sub-Servicer shall notify the Account Debtor as required herein, and procure a written and signed acknowledgement from the Account Debtor, unless otherwise agreed to by the Buyer, that Account Debtor has agreed that all payments by such Account Debtors in connection with the Purchased Receivables shall be made when due, free and clear of any Adverse Claim, Dispute, offset, deduction, defense, claim, counterclaim or similar position, directly into the Custody Account. Such notification and acknowledgement shall be procured from the Account Debtor by the relevant Customer at the time of origination of the Receivable, or by the Seller if not previously obtained by the Customer. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, any payment by any Account Debtor in connection with Purchased Receivables is received by any Seller, Sub-Servicer or any Affiliate thereof, or the Customer, in any other account, the relevant Seller or Sub-Servicer shall cause such payment, in an amount at least equal to the Adjusted Net Invoice Amount, to be promptly deposited into the Collection Account within two (2) Business Days of discovery of the receipt thereof. To the extent any Related Security is not assigned hereunder due to any contractual restrictions and any Seller, Sub-Servicer or any Affiliate thereof received any payment thereunder relating to a Purchased Receivable, the relevant Seller or Sub-Servicer, as the case may be, shall cause such Related Security payment, without duplication, up to an amount equal to the Adjusted Net Invoice Amount for such Purchased Receivable, to be promptly deposited into the Collection Account within two (2) Business Days of discovery of the receipt thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, the obligations of each Seller and Sub-Servicer hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional, irrespective of any limitation imposed upon any Seller, Sub-Servicer or any Affiliates thereof on distributions from any account into which a payment on a Purchased Receivable is made. All payments received from any Account Debtor and referred to in this paragraph shall be held by the Seller, Sub-Servicer or any Affiliate thereof or other recipient other than the Buyer, on trust as the Buyer's exclusive property and safeguarded for the benefit of the Buyer.

(c) Transfers from the Custody Account to the Collection Account. The Sub-Servicer agrees that all amounts received into the operative Custody Account with respect to Purchased Receivables (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Retained Amounts) shall be automatically swept, transferred or otherwise credited to the operative Collection Account, by close of business Dubai time on each of the first Business Day and the penultimate Business Day of each week during the Reinvestment Period (or such other frequency as agreed in writing by the Buyer and Seller). Each such sweep, transfer or credit to the operative Collection Account shall be without adjustment, recoupment, setoff or deduction of any kind or nature. Until remitted to the operative Collection Account, the relevant Seller or Sub-Servicer will hold all such funds on trust as the Buyer's exclusive property and safeguard such funds for the benefit of the Buyer.

(d) Reinvestment of the Amount on Deposit in Collection Account during the Reinvestment Period. Except as otherwise provided herein, subject to the Buyer's sole and absolute discretion to purchase new Receivables, and upon satisfaction of all conditions precedent to any such purchase, amounts credited to the Collection Account during the Reinvestment Period may be applied by the Buyer, as the Purchase Price, to acquire new Receivables from the Seller(s) from time to time.

(e) Application of Amount on Deposit in the Collection Account following the expiry of the Reinvestment Period. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Seller and each Sub-Servicer covenants and agrees to retain amounts on deposit in the Collection Account until directed to transfer such amounts to an account of the Buyer notified thereby to the Seller(s) and the Servicer(s),

(f) Misdirected Payments. If, following receipt by the Buyer of any payment (whether from any Seller, Sub-Servicer or Account Debtor) initially deemed a Collection in respect of Purchased Receivable, such payment is later identified as constituting payment in respect of a Receivable which is not a Purchased Receivable, the Buyer will return such payment to the applicable Seller upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Buyer that such amounts do not constitute Collections on Purchased Receivables.

(g) Dilutions. Upon the occurrence of a Dilution with respect to a Purchased Receivable, the Retained Amount (if any) shall be reduced by the amount of such Dilution. If at any time the occurrence of a Dilution with respect to a Purchased Receivable (x) reduces the Retained Amount (if any) to 0, or (y) occurs after the Retained Amount (if any) has been reduced to 0, the relevant Seller shall be deemed to have received a Deemed Collection in accordance with Section 6(a).

(h) Identifying Collections. Pursuant to each Sub-Servicer's obligations hereunder, each Sub-Servicer shall be responsible for identifying, matching and reconciling any payments received from Account Debtors with the Receivable associated with such payment. If any payment is received from an Account Debtor, and such payment is not identified by such Account Debtor as relating to a particular Receivable or a particular Purchased Receivable and cannot otherwise be reasonably identified as relating to a particular Receivable or a particular Purchased Receivable within five (5) Business Days of receipt thereof, such payment shall be applied against unpaid Purchased Receivables and Receivables not constituting Purchased Receivables of such Account Debtor in chronological order. The Sub-Servicer agrees that it shall maintain a ledger which accurately identifies: (i) amounts credited to the Custody Account in respect of the relevant Purchased Receivable(s); and (ii) amounts swept, transferred or otherwise credited to the Collection Account in respect of the relevant Purchased Receivable(s). Such ledger shall be included in each Reconciliation Report.

(i) No Changes to Receivables. Except as otherwise expressly provided for, or expressly permitted, herein hereof, no Seller or Sub-Servicer shall: (i) compromise or settle any Purchased Receivable, or otherwise modify, amend or supplement the terms of any Contract relating to such Purchased Receivable and/or the terms of any such Purchased Receivable; or (ii) terminate any Contract without the prior written consent of the Buyer. Each Seller further covenants that it shall ensure that no Customer compromises, settles, or otherwise modifies or terminates any Contract or Receivable prior to the transfer of such Receivable to the Seller in a manner that would be prohibited hereunder if undertaken by the Seller.

(j) Reconciliation Report. Concurrently with: (a) each deposit of amounts owing in connection with a Purchased Receivable into the Custody Account, (b) each deposit of amounts into the Collection Account, (c) each reinvestment of amounts standing to the credit of the Disbursement Account (USD) and the Collection Account, (d) each transfer of funds by any Seller to the Buyer's Account on any date, (e) each request by any Seller for a return of payments received by the Buyer which do not represent Collections on Purchased Receivables, (f) the payment of any Deemed Collection, or (g) the payment by the Buyer to the related Seller of any remaining portion of a Dilution, the Sub-Servicers shall provide to the Buyer or the Servicer on behalf of the Buyer, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Buyer, a full reconciliation of all Collections with respect to each Purchased Receivable of an Account Debtor for which Collections were received (each, a "Reconciliation Report"). The Sub-Servicers shall be responsible for submitting the Reconciliation Report to the Buyer, or the Servicer on behalf of the Buyer, via the Receivables Platform or via email to the Buyer's or Servicer's email address as set forth in Section 7 of this Agreement.

(k) Non-Payment Report. In the event a Purchased Receivable has not been paid as a result of a denial of the relevant claim by the Account Debtor (an "Rejected Claim Receivable"), the applicable Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to determine the cause of such payment delay or non-payment, including whether it is due to a Dispute, and it shall deliver to the Buyer by no later than five (5) Business Days after such denial, a certification and report (a "Non-Payment Report") identifying the Rejected Claim Receivable and the Account Debtor thereof and describing in reasonable detail the cause of such non-payment, including whether a Dispute exists or certifying that such cause is unknown. In the event (i) a Purchased Receivable has not been paid in full by the date that is ten (10) days after notification of a claim rejection to the Buyerand (ii) either (x) no Non-Payment Report with respect thereto has been delivered or (y) the Non-Payment Report delivered with respect thereto does not report a Dispute or states that the cause of such payment delay or non-payment is unknown (a "Non-Payment Event"), the Buyer may in its sole discretion (without seeking any Seller or Sub-Servicer consent which shall not be required) (a) contact such Account Debtor by phone or in person to discuss the status of such Rejected Claim Receivable and to inquire whether such payment delay or non-payment is due to a Dispute and when payment can be expected, and/or (b) take any other lawful action to collect such Purchased Receivable directly from such Account Debtor, including claiming any entitlement to late fees or charges that may have accrued under the applicable Contract. In such case, the Seller shall notify the relevant Account Debtor of the subseqauent sale and assignment of the relevant Purchased Receivable to the Buyer hereunder, and shall procure an acknowledgement from the relevant Account Debtor of the same. If the Account Debtor advises the Buyer of the existence of a Dispute, the Buyer shall advise the applicable Seller of such Rejected Claim Receivable that the Account Debtor has asserted a Dispute. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event an Account Debtor shall have admitted its inability or intention not to perform any of its obligations under a Purchased Receivable the Buyer may in its sole discretion (without seeking any Servicer, Seller or Sub-Servicer consent which shall not be required) contact such Account Debtor by phone or in person to discuss such Purchased Receivable.

(l) Sub-Servicer Indemnification. Each Sub-Servicer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer and Servicer and its officers, directors, agents, representatives, shareholders, counsel, employees and each of their respective Affiliates, successors and assigns (each, an "Indemnified Person") from and against any and all damages, claims, losses, costs, expenses, judgments, penalties and liabilities (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to as "Indemnified Amounts") arising out of or resulting from or related to (i) any failure by any Sub-Servicer to perform its duties or obligations as Sub-Servicer hereunder in accordance with this Agreement or to comply in all material respects with any Applicable Law in connection with the Transaction Documents or any Purchased Receivables, (ii) any breach of any Sub-Servicer's (in its capacity as Sub-Servicer) representations, warranties or covenants under any Transaction Document or (iii) any claim brought by any Person other than an Indemnified Person arising from any Sub-Servicer's servicing or collection activities with respect to the Purchased Receivables; provided, however, that in all events there shall be excluded from the foregoing indemnification any damages, claims, losses, costs, expenses or liabilities to the extent resulting solely (x) from the gross negligence (as given its meaning under New York law). or willful misconduct of an Indemnified Person as determined in a final non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction, (y) as a result of the failure of an Account Debtor to pay any sum due under its Purchased Receivables by reason of the financial or credit condition of such Account Debtor (including, without limitation, the occurrence of an Insolvency Event with respect to the applicable Account Debtor), or (z) from any action taken by the Buyer without the consent of the Sub-Servicer, at any time prior to the Sub-Servicer's removal as Sub-Servicer with respect to such Purchased Receivable in accordance with clause (m) of this Section 5 to compromise or settle its claim against the applicable Account Debtor in respect of any such Purchased Receivable. Any amount due and payable pursuant to this clause shall be paid to the Collection Account in immediately available funds within two (2) Business Days following written demand therefor by the Buyer.

(m) Replacement of Sub-Servicers; Buyer Control of Disbursement Account (USD) and Collection Account. Following (x) the occurrence of a Sub-Servicer Termination Event, the Seller's appointment as Sub-Servicer shall automatically terminate and the Servicer shall perform all obligations of Sub-Servicer set forth herein or may replace any or all Sub-Servicers with itself or any other agent for the Buyer with respect to any and all Purchased Receivables, and (y) the occurrence of a Non-Payment Event or Insolvency Event with respect to an Account Debtor, the Servicer may in its sole discretion perform all or certain obligations of Sub-Servicer set forth herein.

(n) Buyer as Attorney-in-Fact. Each Seller hereby appoints the Buyer as its true and lawful attorney, with full power of substitution, coupled with an interest, and hereby authorizes and empowers the Buyer in that Seller's name and on its behalf at any time following removal of any Seller as Sub-Servicer pursuant to clause (m) of this Section 5, to take such actions, and execute and deliver such documents, as the Buyer deems necessary or advisable in connection with any applicable Purchased

Receivable: (i) to perfect the purchase and sale of such Purchased Receivable, including, without limitation, to send a notice of such purchase and sale to the Account Debtor of the transfers contemplated hereby and the sale of such Purchased Receivable, or (ii) to make collection of and otherwise realize the benefits of such Purchased Receivable. At any time that any Seller is no longer serving as Sub-Servicer hereunder, the Buyer or Servicer shall have the right to bring suit against an Account Debtor, in the Buyer's or any Seller's name, and generally have all other rights of an owner and holder respecting each applicable Purchased Receivable, including without limitation the right to accelerate or extend the time of payment, settle, compromise, release in whole or in part any amounts owing on such Purchased Receivables and issue credits in its own name. At any time following the removal of any Seller as Sub-Servicer, the Buyer or the Servicer may endorse or sign the Buyer's or any Sellers' name on any checks or other instruments with respect to any applicable Purchased Receivables. The Buyer and the Servicer shall not be liable for any actions taken by it in accordance with this Section unless such actions constitute the gross negligence (as given its meaning under New York law) or willful misconduct of the Buyer or Servicer as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable judgment. This power of attorney, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable and shall not expire until the Final Collection Date. Each Seller hereby agrees at all times to ratify and confirm all things done and all documents executed by the Buyer in the exercise or purported exercise of all or any of its power under this clause. Each Seller agrees to indemnify the Buyer against any loss, claim, liability or expense imposed upon the Buyer as a result of any action taken by it pursuant to this clause save where the same arises as the result of the gross negligence (as given its meaning under New York law) or fraud of the Buyer. Each Seller hereby declares that the power of attorney granted under this clause has been given for security purposes and to secure continuing obligations of each Seller. The powers granted under this clause shall be irrevocable and shall not be affected by the bankruptcy, liquidation, receivership, the making of an administration order or appointment of an administrative receiver or any other equivalent event of or affecting any Seller.

(o) Netting of Payments; Setoff. Each Seller and Sub-Servicer hereby irrevocably instructs and authorizes the Buyer, at any time (including, but not limited to, at any time that a Sub-Servicer Termination Event has occurred and is continuing) to setoff, appropriate and apply (without presentment, demand, protest or other notice which are hereby expressly waived) any deposits and any other indebtedness or amounts held by or for the benefit of the Buyer, or owing by the Buyer (including, without limitation, under any of Sections 1(i), 5(c), 5(d), or 5(e) hereof), as applicable, or any branch, agency or Affiliate thereof, including the payment of all or any portion of the Purchase Price for any Proposed Receivables, to, or for the account of, any Seller or any Sub-Servicer against amounts owing by each Seller or Sub-Servicer hereunder or under any other Transaction Document.

6. Deemed Collections; Events of Repurchase; Indemnities.

(a) Deemed Collections. If, on any day following the Purchase Date for any Purchased Receivable, the outstanding balance of such Purchased Receivable is reduced (including to zero) or cancelled as a result of any Dilution and the aggregate amount of Dilutions with respect to such Purchased Receivable exceeds the Retained Amount (if any) (such excess amount, a "Dilution Shortfall"), the applicable Seller shall be deemed to have received on such day a Collection in respect of such Purchased Receivable in the amount equal to such Dilution Shortfall. Any amount deemed to have been received under this Section 6(a) shall constitute a "Deemed Collection". In the event of any such Deemed Collection, the applicable Seller shall deposit an amount equal to such Deemed Collection into the Collection Account by no later than the third Business Day after such Seller or Sub-Servicer obtains knowledge or notice thereof.

(b) Events of Repurchase. If any of the following events (each, an "Event of Repurchase") occurs with respect to a Purchased Receivable:

(i) such Purchased Receivable was not an Eligible Receivable at the time of purchase;

(ii) subject to the Sub-Servicer's confirmation in writing (which may be by way of email and shall be provided to the Purchaser and the Investment Agent promptly and in any event, within 1 (one) Business Day of the ealier of: (A) the Company or the Servicer notifying the Seller of the occurrence of one of the following events; and (B) the Sub-Servicer becoming aware of such event occuring) to the Purchaser that, in the event of the occurrence of any of the following events, it shall have the right to force the relevant Customer to repurchase the relevant Receivable pursuant to the Aggregator Receivables Purchase Agreement:

(1) any representation or warranty pertaining to such Purchased Receivable deemed to have been made by a Seller pursuant to Section 1(d) in connection with such Seller's delivery or submission of the Purchase Request in which such Purchased Receivable was included shall be inaccurate, incorrect or untrue in any material respect on the date as of which it was made or deemed to be made, and if capable of cure, is not cured within the respective time period provided, or any representation or warranty made by the relevant Customer in the Aggregator Receivables Purchase Agreement with respect to such Receivable was inaccurate, incorrect or untrue in any material respect as of the date the Seller acquired such Receivable from the Customer;

(2) an Adverse Claim or a Dispute has arisen with respect to such Purchased Receivable whether as a result of a Seller's breach of any representation, warranty or covenant or otherwise; or

(3) a Seller breaches any representation, warranty or covenant which in the Buyer's judgment would prejudice or limit the Buyer's rights to payment with respect to such Purchased Receivable, including reducing the amount due thereunder;

(4) to the extent appilicable, the applicable acknowledgment of assignment initially to the Seller pursuant to the Aggregator Receivables Purchase Agreement by an Account Debtor (as contemplated in Exhibit H) is at any time found to be invalid, unenforceable, or materially inaccurate, or the Account Debtor disputes its contents or validity;

(5) the goods or services underlying the Purchased Receivable are materially defective, not delivered as agreed, or not performed in accordance with the terms of the related Contract (by the relevant Customer), and such failure leads to a dispute or non-payment by the Account Debtor;

Upon the payment in full of the repurchase price with respect to a Purchased Receivable (or portion), such Purchased Receivable (or portion) shall hereby be, and be deemed to be, repurchased by such Seller from the Buyer without recourse to or warranty by the Buyer, whereupon such Purchased Receivable shall no longer be deemed a Purchased Receivable (or portion) and the Buyer shall have no further right, title or interest in or to such Purchased Receivable (or portion).

(c) Optional Event of Repurchase: To the extent that the Weighted Average Life Test exceeds 70 days and the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of Extended Age Receivables exceeds 5% of the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of all Eligible Receivables, after consultation between the Seller, the Purchaser and the Investment Agent, the Company may offer certain Eligible Receivables to the the Purchaser for repurchase. None of the Seller or the Company shall be obliged to sell or purchase (as applicable) any such Eligible Receivables upon the occurrence of such event.

Any amount due and payable pursuant to this section shall be paid to the Collection Account in immediately available funds by no later than the fifth (5th) Business Day following written demand therefor by the Buyer.

The Sellers hereby agree that the Buyer may deduct such amounts to be reimbursed by the Seller pursuant to this Section 9 from funds available in the Collection Account and the Disbursement Account (USD) and that any such withdrawal shall satisfy the Sellers' payment obligation up to the amount of such withdrawal.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE PARTIES HERETO AND ANY NON-CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH IT, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

(b) CONSENT TO JURISDICTION. The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of Abu Dhabi Global Markets have exclusive jurisdiction to determine any claim, dispute or difference arising out of or in connection with this agreement or any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (including a dispute regarding the existence, legal, validity, enforcement or termination of or any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this Agreement) (an "RPA Dispute").

(c) CONVENIENT FORUM. The parties agree that the courts of Abu Dhabi Global Markets are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle RPA Disputes and, accordingly, that they will not argue to the contrary.

(d) WAIVER OF IMMUNITIES. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT TO THE EXTENT THAT IT HAS OR HEREAFTER MAY ACQUIRE ANY IMMUNITY FROM THE JURISDICTION OF ANY COURT OR FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS (WHETHER THROUGH SERVICE OR NOTICE, ATTACHMENT PRIOR TO JUDGMENT, ATTACHMENT IN AID TO EXECUTION, EXECUTION OR OTHERWISE) WITH RESPECT TO ITSELF OR ITS PROPERTY, IT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES SUCH IMMUNITY IN RESPECT OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

No Non-Direct Damages. To the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, each Seller, and each Sub-Servicer shall not assert, and each such Person hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnified Person, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. No Indemnified Person shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby; provided that the waiver Joint and Several Obligations. The obligations of the Sellers hereunder are joint and several. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, each Seller hereby agrees to subordinate until the Final Collection Date any claim, right or remedy that such Seller now has or hereafter acquires against any other Seller that arises hereunder including, without limitation, any claim, remedy or right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, contribution, indemnification, or participation in any claim, right or remedy of the Buyer against any Seller or any of its property which the Buyer now has or hereafter acquires, whether or not such claim, right or remedy arises in equity, under contract, by statute, under common law or otherwise. In addition, until the Final Collection Date, each Seller hereby waives any right to proceed against the other Sellers, now or hereafter, for contribution, indemnity, reimbursement, and any other suretyship rights and claims, whether direct or indirect, liquidated or contingent, whether arising under express or implied contract or by operation of law, which any Seller may now have or hereafter have as against the other Seller with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

13. General Provisions.

(a) Final Agreement. This Agreement represents the final agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings and agreements with respect to such subject matter.

(b) Assignment.

(i) The Buyer may not sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of its right, title or interest in and to, or its obligations under, this Agreement without the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the Sellers; provided that no consent of the Sellers shall be required in connection with any of the following:

(1) any assignment, sale, transfer, or other disposition by the Buyer of all (whether in whole or in part) of its right, title and interest in and to, and all of its obligations under this Agreement (including its rights and obligations as Servicer) to an Affiliate of the Buyer, or, if a Sub-Servicer Termination Event has occurred and is continuing, any other Person;

(2) any assignment, sale, transfer, or other disposition by the Buyer of all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including its rights as Servicer) to any Affiliate of the Buyer;

(5) for an assignment to an Affiliate of the Buyer, or, if a Sub-Servicer Termination Event has occurred and is continuing, to any other Person; or

(6) qunless directed to do so by the Servicer.

(ii) None of the Sellers or Sub-Servicers may sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of its right title or interest in, or its obligations under, the Transaction Documents without the prior written consent of the Buyer in its sole discretion.

(iii) Subject to the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii), this Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of each party hereto and its successors and assigns.

Each of the Seller and the Sub-Servicer agrees to cooperate in good faith and to execute any agreements and acknowledgments reasonably requested of it in connection with such pledge, assignment, transfer or participation. The Sub-Servicer further acknowledges and agrees that in certain circumstances it may become obligated to follow the direction of any secured party, assignee, transferee or participant of the Buyer's or Servicer's rights with respect to the Purchased Receivables.

(c) Severability. Any provisions of this Agreement which are prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

(d) Execution; Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties on separate counterparts, each of which, when executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute but one and the same agreement. The various captions in this Agreement are provided solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated, references in this Agreement to any Section, Schedule or Exhibit are to such Section of or Schedule or Exhibit to this Agreement, as the case may be, and references in any Section, subsection, or clause to any subsection, clause or subclause are to such subsection, clause or subclause of such Section, subsection or clause.

(f) No Party Deemed Drafter. No party hereto shall be deemed to be the drafter of this Agreement.

(g) PATRIOT Act. The Buyer hereby notifies each other party hereto that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act (Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001)) (the "Act"), it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each such party, which information includes the name and address of such party and other information that will allow such Person to identify such party in accordance with the Act. Each party to this Agreement shall, promptly following a request by the Buyer, provide all documentation and other information that the Buyer requests in order to comply with its ongoing obligations under applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the Act.

(h) Amendments; Waiver.

No failure or delay by the Buyer in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any other Transaction Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Buyer hereunder and under any other Transaction Document are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of any Transaction Document or consent to any departure by any Seller therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by the next paragraph, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the making of a purchase shall not be construed as a waiver of any default or breach of this Agreement, regardless of whether the Buyer may have had notice or knowledge of such default or breach at the time.

No waiver, alteration, modification or amendment of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or any of the provisions hereof or thereof shall be binding unless made in writing and duly executed by each Seller each Sub-Servicer, the Buyer and Servicer. No assignment by the Buyer in accordance with Section 13(b) shall be deemed to be an alteration, modification or amendment of any of the provisions hereof.

(j) Third party rights. The parties to this Agreement do not intend that any term of this Agreement shall be enforceable solely by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any person who is not a party to this Agreement. The parties may rescind, vary, waive, release, assign, novate or otherwise dispose of all or any of their respective rights or obligations under this Agreement without the consent of any person who is not a party to this Agreement.

(k) Force Majeure. If a Force Majeure Event is claimed by either the Buyer and/or Servicer on the one hand or the Seller and/or Sub-Servicer on the other hand, such Person making such claim shall orally notify the other Party as soon as reasonably possible after the occurrence of such Force Majeure Event and, in addition, shall provide the other Person with written notice of such Force Majeure Event within five (5) days after the occurrence of such Force Majeure Event. Except for a Person's obligations to make payments hereunder without limitation, no party to this Agreement will be liable for any nonperformance or delay in performance of the terms of this Agreement when such failure is due to a Force Majeure Event. If a party hereto relies on the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event as a basis for being excused from performance of its obligations hereunder, such Person relying on the Force Majeure Event shall (i) provide an estimate of the expected duration of the Force Majeure Event and its probable impact on performance of such Person's obligations hereunder and (ii) provide prompt notice to the other Party of the cessation of the Force Majeure Event. Upon the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, the same will, so far as possible, be remedied as expeditiously as possible using commercially reasonable efforts. It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Section 13(k) shall require the settlement of strikes, lockouts or industrial disputes or disturbances by acceding to the demands of any opposing party therein when such course is inadvisable in the discretion of the Party having the difficulty.

Confidentiality; Disclosure Required by Law. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that each other party will receive and have access to proprietary confidential information (including this Agreement, term sheets and business terms related to this Agreement or transactions contemplated hereunder) disclosed by a disclosing party (collectively, the "Information"). The receiving party will use the disclosing party's Information solely to perform its obligations and exercise its rights under or in relation to this Agreement and any other Transaction Document. Each party hereto agrees to protect the Information by using the same degree of care as it uses to protect its own confidential or proprietary information of a like nature, but not less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized dissemination, publication or use of the Information. The receiving party will not disclose the disclosing party's Information: provided that, the receiving party may disclose the disclosing party's Information:

(a) to such party's Affiliates and the respective directors, managers, officers, trustees, employees, agents and advisors of such party (so long as each such Person shall have been instructed to keep the same confidential in accordance with this Section 13);

(b) to the extent necessary to comply with law or any legal process or the requirements of any Governmental Authority (including bank examiners and self-regulatory organizations) or of any securities exchange on which securities of the receiving party or any Affiliate of the receiving party are listed or traded (and the receiving party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to so notify the other party of such disclosure; provided no such notice shall be required if such disclosure is part of a routine regulatory examination or securities law filing (including any required filing disclosing this Agreement) or is not otherwise permitted pursuant to Applicable Law);

(c) as part of normal reporting or review procedures to Governmental Authorities (the disclosing party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to so notify the other party of such disclosure; provided no such notice shall be required if such disclosure is part of a routine regulatory examination or is not otherwise permitted pursuant to Applicable Law);

(d) to the extent that such Information becomes available from a source other than disclosing party or its representatives, provided that to receiving party's knowledge, such source is not prohibited from disclosing such information to receiving party by a contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation to disclosing party;

(e) in order to enforce its rights under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document in a legal proceeding; and

(f) to any actual or prospective assignee of, or any actual or prospective participant in, any of its rights under this Agreement or any financing, or credit insurance provider (so long as such has agreed in a legally enforceable document to comply with the terms of this Section 13 or any other substantially similar confidentiality restrictions).
